

OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE

To: All TS Drivers

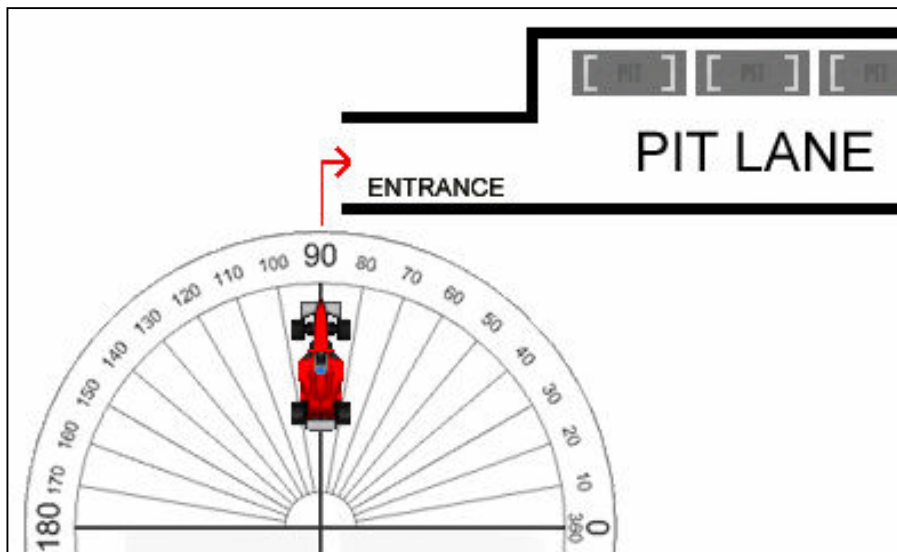

Date: 29/05/2009

REG Q01 – ENTERING PITS

At no time may a car reverse or turn back to enter in pits during qualification or race.

- In case a driver misses pit entrance, either by mistake or by accident he has to proceed for another lap until he reaches pits again. The driver must keep away from racing line and make up his up-most to avoid disturbing other drivers.
- A 90-degree entry in pits is allowed. Another regulation is then applied, in case pit lane lines are not followed correctly (i.e. crossed).
- Entering pits above the 90+ degrees is not allowed and driver involved will be disqualified from race. (level 5.1 penalty)
